

A great number of substitutes are advertised for in the Richmond papers, all to be over 45 years of age.

FROM CLINTON COUNTY, Ky.—We learned,

last evening, from a gentleman, who had just arrived from Meigs county, that the notorious thief and marauder, Champ

Ferguson, has been put out of the way.

Some ten days ago, Capt. Morrison, formerly of Wolford's cavalry, at the head of a company of Home Guards, hunted up

Champ Ferguson and his band, and, after a brisk skirmish, Champ and sixteen of his band were killed. The loss of the Home

Guards we did not learn.

This Ferguson has been the scourge of Clinton, his own county, stealing all he could lay his hands on, and killing defenseless old men, women and children;

sparring nothing towards which he entered a spite. But he is out of the way and

Clinton county may hope for a little peace.

Our neighbor of the New Albany

Ledger, deals in the grapevine telegraph to an alarming extent. He has a budget of startling news from Kentucky—hardly a line of which is correct.

There is, or was, a Confederate force,

of about four thousand men, this side of Shelbyville, on the Lexington road. Their pickets were at Middletown yesterday. Their miles from Louisville; but they left, we understand, last night.

From the best information we can get,

Bragg's main force is on the march from Bardonia towards Springfield.

We think it quite certain that Bragg

will not be got up without a foot race.

There are plenty of startling reports,

which are known here not to be true.

AT THE RIVER.—Quite a number of boats were yesterday lying at the city wharf, all,

we believe, engaged in Government business.

The pontoon bridge will be completed today, and the Cincinnati packets will, for some time, be forced to land at Jeffersonville, or in the vicinity of Clay street.

The ferry-boats will run above the bridge,

making landings at Clay street.

The McCombs arrived from Henderson

yesterday morning. She had no trouble from guerrillas on the trip up.

The J. T. McCombs is the regular Saturday packet, and will leave this afternoon,

at 6 o'clock, for Henderson and all way points.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—The following marriage licenses were issued by the clerk of the Jefferson County Court, for the week ending September 26th, 1862:

Jerry Callahan and Mary Keating.

John Wain and Elizabeth Jackson.

Charles Stutz and Maria Kohler.

Nicholas C. Smith and Mary Jane Wells.

William G. H. Smith and Mary Jane Wells.

George S. Hopkins and Mary Jane Wells.

John Wain and Elizabeth Jackson.

Charles Stutz and Maria Kohler.

Nicholas C. Smith and Mary Jane Wells.

William G. H. Smith and Mary Jane Wells.

George S. Hopkins and Mary Jane Wells.

John Wain and Elizabeth Jackson.

Charles Stutz and Maria Kohler.

Nicholas C. Smith and Mary Jane Wells.

William G. H. Smith and Mary Jane Wells.

George S. Hopkins and Mary Jane Wells.

John Wain and Elizabeth Jackson.

Charles Stutz and Maria Kohler.

Nicholas C. Smith and Mary Jane Wells.

William G. H. Smith and Mary Jane Wells.

George S. Hopkins and Mary Jane Wells.

John Wain and Elizabeth Jackson.

Charles Stutz and Maria Kohler.

Nicholas C. Smith and Mary Jane Wells.

William G. H. Smith and Mary Jane Wells.

George S. Hopkins and Mary Jane Wells.

John Wain and Elizabeth Jackson.

Charles Stutz and Maria Kohler.

Nicholas C. Smith and Mary Jane Wells.

William G. H. Smith and Mary Jane Wells.

George S. Hopkins and Mary Jane Wells.

John Wain and Elizabeth Jackson.

Charles Stutz and Maria Kohler.

Nicholas C. Smith and Mary Jane Wells.

William G. H. Smith and Mary Jane Wells.

George S. Hopkins and Mary Jane Wells.

AN incident is related of a boy in the fight at Antietam belonging to the Ninth

New York, but whose name could not be ascertained, who stood in front of his regiment while it engaged the enemy at short range, in which position he fired all his cartridges, and, stooping down, took his dead comrade's cartridge box, and fired the entire contents, in all ninety-five rounds,

not receiving a scratch the whole time, not withstanding the ground was covered with the dead and wounded all around him. The regiment was ordered to charge a rifle pit

where the rebels were concealed, and our young hero was the first that entered it—

the enemy flying at the approach of the bayonet.

CORRECTION.—We were mistaken in our notice yesterday of an outrage at the corner of Preston and Market streets, Thursday. The man was ordered by the guards to go with them across the street for the purpose of examining his pass, when he bluntly refused, and was struck by one of the guards, and not bayoneted, as was stated; nor did the guards belong to Capt.

Dillard's company. They were members of Capt. Daly's company.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTORS.—The following

real estate transactions took place in the city of Louisville, and county of Jefferson,

during the week ending September 26, 1862:

W. C. Trahan to Elizabeth Trahan, 12 acres, Jefferson county, near Bardonia road, $1,200.

D. A. Smith to J. H. Smith, 12 acres, Jefferson county, near Bardonia road, $1,200.

James Guthrie to J. Guthrie, 60 acres, Jefferson county, near Bardonia road, $1,200.

Conrad Kohl to Catherine Kohl, 20 acres, Jefferson county, near Bardonia road, $1,200.

Jefferson, between Jackson and Hancock streets, $1,200.

A DEMOCRATIC REGIMENT.—The 10th Illinois regiment, from the Cairo district, is emphatically a Democrat regiment. One of the staff officers says that a poll of the regiment was taken, and that every man in it,

except seven, was a Democrat.

CANADA FLAX.—A considerable amount of flax has been grown this season by the farmers in the district of Elgin, Canada.

A very simple machine has been introduced to prepare the flax for market.

PROMOTION.—Captain John Q. Owsley has been promoted to the majority of the Fifth

Kentucky cavalry regiment.

FROM CORINTH.—The Battle of Iuka.

Extract from a private letter dated Corinth, Mississippi, September 21.

I must write you a word or two about the battle near Iuka.

Price had taken up a position about a mile and a half north of Iuka, as if he was on the way to the Tennessee. The plan was for Rosecrans to approach him

from the north, and Grant from the south,

the latter keeping on the north side of the road, and the battle was to take place Saturday morning. Information has also been received to the effect that Van Dorn and Beckwith were expected to make a junction with Price during the early part of the week, and therefore it was a further object

